Insurance Institute webinar supports development of industry leadership

(Toronto, ON – April 15, 2015) The Insurance Institute of Canada is holding a free national webinar on May 5 and 6 to show how people in the industry can develop their leadership skills through the Fellow Chartered Insurance Professional (FCIP) designation program.

The short, lively 30-minute webinar will be offered at 1 pm EST on Tuesday, May 5 and at 7:30 pm EST on Wednesday, May 6.

Webinar registration information is available on the Insurance Institute website at www.insuranceinstitute.ca/fcip

FCIP grads say the program has helped them to understand the kinds of decisions that Canadian property and casualty insurance companies and their executive leadership must make on a daily basis. The FCIP program offers a comprehensive business education with a unique and exclusive focus on issues facing the p&c industry.

FCIP candidate Dana Al Nammari, a commercial insurance underwriter in Montreal, has recently completed all six FCIP online courses and will be available as a webinar panelist to describe her experiences in the program.

FCIP course facilitator Seán Finucane will be on hand to answer questions about the online course format, as well as the opportunities it creates for FCIP candidates from throughout Canada to connect and learn from one another.

A member of the Insurance Institute's FCIP team will set the stage for the conversation and lead a 20-minute Q & A session regarding the FCIP program.
